Pt VI, Line 11b: The President, Treasurer and Executive Director review and provide final approval before filing. A final copy of the 990 is provided to the board.

Pt VI, Line 19: Form 1023, Governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and Form 990 are made available to the public upon request. These items are available to Board membes and staff in a Governance and Policy folder on a shared Google Drive.

Pt VI, Line 12c: Employees, directors, officers and key volunteers sign a Conflict of Interest Policy and Agreement annually, disclosing formal affiliations with other organizations. These completed agreements are kept on file. If a situation comes up where a disclosed or newly identified conflict of interest presents a challenge, the Board President and Executive Director work to find a solution that eliminates or mitigates the conflict, involving the individual(s) as necessary.

Pt VI, Line 15a: The Board President compiled comparable data from non-profit organizations across Vermont and the broader Northeast into a report that included comparable salaries, organizational size and budget and whether the Executive Director role was full-time or part-time. The also tracked the New England Executive Director job listings for a couple of months and compiled a summary of posted salaries and benefits. The President reviewed this market information and a draft compensation proposal with each Board Officer and the outgoing President prior to Board presentation for input. The full Board then reviewed the market information and draft compensation proposal and a draft employee offer letter during executive session (from which the Executive Director was excluded) and voted to approve the offer letter. Meeting minutes were taken and the overall result of the vote was recorded in the regular board meeting minutes and then approved at the following board meeting.
